

Academic Credit Granted for Successful Completion of Pathway School of Ministry
Programs
Memorandum of Understanding

LABI College/Pathway School of Ministry Partnership

LABI College agrees to offer 1.5 academic credits per course after successful complete of the prescribed course of student at Pathway School of Ministry.

LABI College will award credit as follows:

- Credits from courses with course code BIB will count towards LABI College program required credits in the Division of Bible.
- Credits from courses with course code THE will count towards LABI College program required credits in the Division of Theology.
- Credits from courses with course code MIN will count towards LABI College program required credits in the Division of Ministry.

All programs at LABI College require some amount of BIB, THE, or MIN credits. Students should consult with the academic advisor to understand the program requirements of the program the transfer student would transfer into.

Eligibility for Receiving Academic Credit:

1. Credit can only be granted after the application of the student to LABI College is approved.
2. Students applying for academic credit earned by completion of the Pathway School of Ministry must do so in the first semester of enrollment at LABI College. While the credits will not post to their official transcript immediately, this will guide their advisor in course scheduling.
3. After completing a minimum 12 credits at LABI College with a minimum 2.0 grade point average (grades below C- will not count toward the required additional credits), the credits transferred from the Pathway School of Ministry will be posted on their official transcript.
4. Although transfer credit through this articulation is most compatible with the AA in Bible and Ministry and BA in Theology degrees, credit may also be transferred into LABI Collee's other BA degree programs.
5. The granting of credit through this means will be managed through LABI College's Registrar's Office.
6. This articulation agreement will follow the Transfer Policy of LABI College
7. This articulation agreement can be terminated by either party with three months' notice.
